Notice to Our Patrons

The building we were occupying having been sold, we were forced to move elsewhere, so we purchased the Mayfield building and are occupying the room facing on South Washington Street just in front of our old location. We hope you will not find this inconven-'ent and that we may be pleased with your continued patronage which we most assuredly appreciate - We wish to thank you for your past patronage and for that we may receive in the future.

VALUES ARE HERE

We can truthfully say that every item of merchandise in our stock is a real value whether its suits or socks or what not.

We are members of a 700 store buying organization who pay spot cash and buy in very large quantities all kinds of merchandise.

This organization is known as the Retaiers Commercial Union, with the Diamond Shaped R. C. U. trade mark which you will find only in our

In spite of the fact that this year of 1919 will go down on Merchantile Records as the one when merchandise was searcest And highest you will find that direct factory dealing with cooperation will solve the problem.

Being merchants and not speculators we will pass our savings to you with only two profits; Yours and ours.

Who Supervises a Trust Co?

1. DIRECTORS. A board of Directors of nine responsible men, all of whom are stockholders, manage the business and property of the NORTH MISSOURI TRUST COMPANY. They appoint from their Board on Examining Committee who examine the finances and business of the institution twice each year and make an annual sworn report thereof annually to the State Banking Department.

2. STATE BANKING DEPARTMENT. Sworn statements of the condition of the Trust Company are made by the management at least three times a year, upon call of the State Bank Commissioner, and published in a local newspaper; and once every year a State Bank Examiner appears unannounced and counts the cash and all securities and audits all the Company's books and accounts.

3. COURTS. Where the Trust Company is appointed by the Court to act as Trustee, Executor, Administrator, etc., it is required to make Annual Reports covering all funds received and disbursed during the year, and file the report with the Clerk of the Court. However, where it is appointed by an individual, it makes the report direct to the individual and not to the Court, unless otherwise instructed by the individual creating the Trust. All these precautions are primarily made for the protection of the Trust Company's patrons.

THE MODEL GROCERTERIA

A year ago the first of October the Model Grocerteria opened its doors with a very modest stock of Food Stuff. The plan of the Grocerteria, was to sell goods at a close margin of profit and to sell lots of them, also to compete with the mail order houses which would enable our citizens to see the goods they desired before paying for them. That the Grocerteria should realize its intentions a great volume of business must be done, in fact it is a little short of its alloted quota. Now friends, the Grocerteria appeals to you: If you feel that the Grocerteria has helped you to battle the high cost of living and if you realize that the Grocerteria has held prices down since its opening you should assist it in its last two weeks to reach its intended amount of business. The Grocerteria must win out if it has to sacrifice its large stock at reduced prices, Now look over these prices and buy heavy. You will thank the Grocerteria later.
